OUR SKATE BRO MIKE HAS CONTRIBUTED TO MANY RIPPING SESSIONS, LOCKED UP TILL (93) THIS INTERVIEW COMES FROM MIKE TO ALL YOU SKATERS OUT THERE.

HOW DID YOU GET INTO SKATEBOARDING?

I started skating in 84. I was racing BMX too, and by 86 skateboarding dominated my weekends, so I hung up the bike.

WHAT WERE YOUR FAVORITE SPOTS AND PLACES TO HANG?

Man, your ramp's about the only place I like to go that's still skateable and bust free. Other than that Myojo bank in Sidney, Eastwood ditch, the Fountain, Bink's mini in Troy, Shopemith banks, Troy banks, Late night session's ruled for me anywhere.

ANY SESSIONS STICK OUT IN YOUR MIND?

Late-night fountain session's, ramp BBQ's, just skatin and kickin it with my bro's, skating Ann Arbor clover pool in 89 campin out there, Tony and Todd's hospitality and their city tour.

SO WHAT'S THE MIKE MOORE SKATE STYLE?

Frontside grinds make me smile, I just like to go as fast as possible but with style.

WHAT'S THE RADDEST THING YOU'VE EVER DONE?

I took the ultimate skate trip to Europe in 88. Stayed for 2 months and travelled all over via train.

HOW DID YOU GET PUT AWAY?

I got snitched out and got busted with ten sheets of the dread LSD. This is the first time I've gotten in trouble other than traffic tickets. I just got to greedy and trusted someone I had mistaken for a friend. My sentence is 3 years and I deserve it, I wish everyone thought that way. I've done the crime, I'll do the time. I've just got to pick up the pieces and get on with my life. Try not to come back to the joint.

WHAT'S IT BEEN LIKE NOT SKATING? IS SKATEBOARDING A FREEDOM WE ALL TAKE FOR GRANTED?

Yeah, skateboarding is definitely taken for granted. Ya never know how much it is till its gone. So the next time your bitchin about how boring your scene is, think about me; I can't skate for another year and a half.

WHAT'S THE FIRST THING YOU'LL DO WHEN YOU GET OUT?

Try to find a kind woman to take care of me.

ANY MESSAGES TO THE SKATERS OUT THERE?

I'll see y'all in 93. Till then I really need some mail

HELLO, AND WELCOME TO LIMA HOUSING AUTHORITY, A TAXPAYER FUNDED SERVICE PROVIDING SHELTER AND COMFORT TO LOW INCOME CRACK HEADS, TODAY WE HAVE A SPECIAL EVENT, SKATEBOARDING! A CONTEST SERIES THAT BOOSTED BOARD SALES AT LOCAL K-MART AND TOYS R US STORES. MOST OF ALL IT GAVE KIDS A CHANCE TO DROP IN ON A SKATEBOARD FOR THE VERY FIRST AND PROBABLY LAST TIME. I VOLUNTEERED MY SERVICES FOR THIS EVENT TO CONFISCATE ALLEGED STOLEN BOARDS AND TO "GET RAD" AND "PROMOTE" SKATEBOARDING FOR THE CLUELESS MASSES. ALL IN HOPES TO GET CITY OFFICIALS TO "BUY" THE IDEA OF A CITY SKATE PARK. NOW I KNEW I COULD JUST BE A PAWN IN A GAME OF USING SKATERS TO MILK GOVERNMENT GRANTS, BUT MAYBE THERE IS HOPE BEYOND ALL THE RED TAPE. I SHOULD'VE KNOWN BETTER.

MONDO CAMBO DOVE EAT

1995-2017 L.J.M. a Prince & CH

10 years gone, and what have I to show for it? Bikes, skateboards, a few boards, a few. Ever since I can remember I've been spending my time on those things. Maybe it's a cop out starting as a kid, refusing to grow up in the suburbs of Detroit while every other kid was growing up too fast. I was biking and skating in a world of my own. Curbs, steep trails, things that didn't mean nothing to nobody took on special meaning to me. Now I'm lost in Ohio, 10 or is it 20 years gone, I'm still spending my time on those bikes and skateboards. What have I to show for it? Nothing to no-one, something to me. I know I could be so much more in life but I don't think I could get any more out of it. All the memories in my mind, jumping thousands of jumps on my bike, hanging with the heavy on some of the nation's hottest tracks and roll out decks. Skating some of the raddest skate spots in the world, in an era where it meant something. I couldn't have been born at a better time in a better place with a better release. All of it, probably a million prinds later, I've got nothing but a bunch of broken trucks, scarred knees, and a thought that says you lived it, you were in there, then I smile. I never made any money at it, I never really made any friends. The only thing I made was myself. Thoughts, solitude, pushing my limits for no apparent reason. Where has it all lead me? What has it all done for me?

Me and my bike, me and my board, me and the Lord.

Thank you God for using such things to cause me to think, to ask why, to search myself, see my need and find your love. Thank you Jesus for saving me. I hope I've been an influence in someone else's life.

Lets check out the days of old, roots, the past. Is there anything to learn? You dont make your own roots bro, they were laid down before you were even around. So its the 90s, and whats up in the 90s? A lot of hype, attitudes, this fresh hip hop style, I dont know, whats up? I realize the need to progress, its part of life. All I'm sayin is find out where your going, find out where your from. Check these ads from a 78 skateboard mag. Skateboarding was born clean, an outlet of aggression, just a pure feeling. But you know like all pure clean things its just a matter of time until it gets ruined. Greed, corruption people taking advantage of our fun. I figure its O.K. for them to make a buck, but dont start invading my freedom space with all your garbage. They do it anyway and get us in bondage to there lame scene which everyone thinks is cool but we all know it stinks. Do you get what I'm sayin? You end up with all these other jokers running your life and all they care about is keeping you in their plan so they can use you, they try to make you believe your free but you know your not.

Its not just skateboarding only, its everything, your once clean life has now been in invaded by scammers, destroyers. Maybe these old ads can give us a clue. What are they pushing? Freedom in your face. Skateboarding, Life, Its about pure bustin out freedom, and Jesus Christ is where its at. Freedom full on. Jet it, and for it. Skate free. Live free Die free S'as the ec-
